

Finding Videos on Youtube

Youtube is an online video platform that will let you share your videos with friends and family. It also lets you to search for videos posted by other people and view them. The steps below will help you search for videos on Youtube.

Instructions

- Go to www.youtube.com in any internet browser such as Chrome.
- On top of the page, you will find a 'Search' bar.
- Make sure to click in the search bar and start typing in a topic you are searching for.

Search

Type your text in this search bar

- Some matching topics will begin to appear under the search bar.
- In the example below, as you start typing in the word 'hotel california', related topics begin to appear.

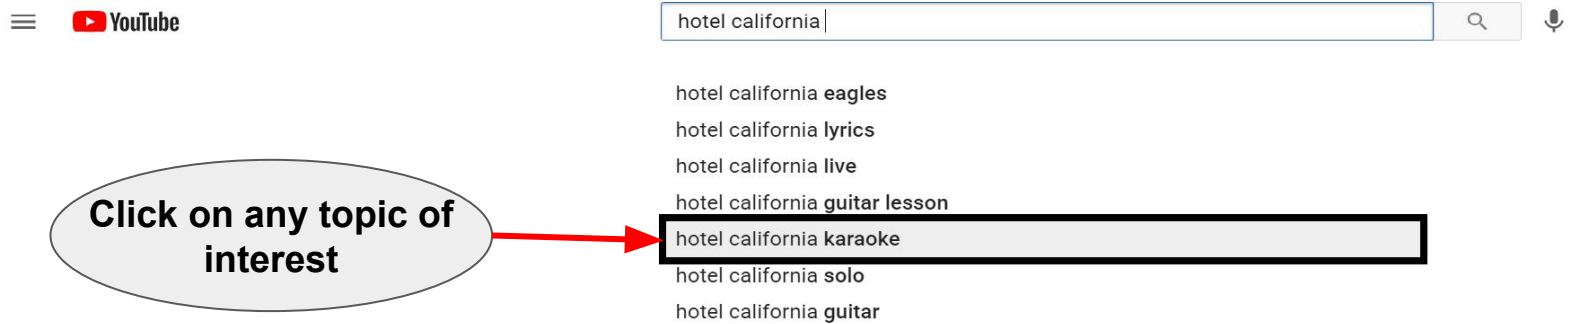

hotel california

hotel california eagles
hotel california lyrics
hotel california live
hotel california guitar lesson
hotel california karaoke
hotel california solo

These matches begin to appear

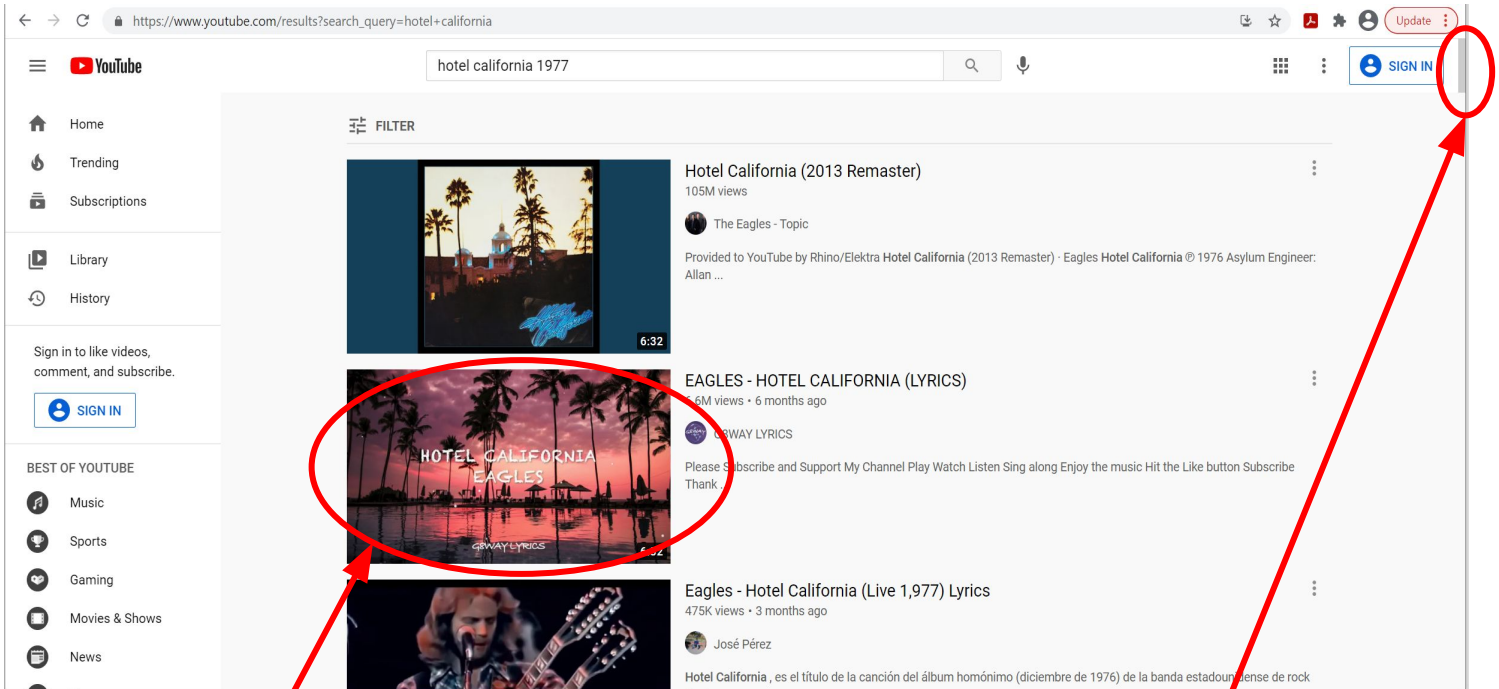

- If you find the topic that is of interest, you can select it from the list by clicking on that topic using your mouse.

- You can also continue to type in further to refine your search
- Once the search topic is fully entered, you can hit 'Enter' key or click on the magnifying glass icon next to the search bar.

- Matching videos will now appear under the search bar. Use the scroll bar to find more search results. If you find want to watch any of the videos shown on the page, simply click on the video.

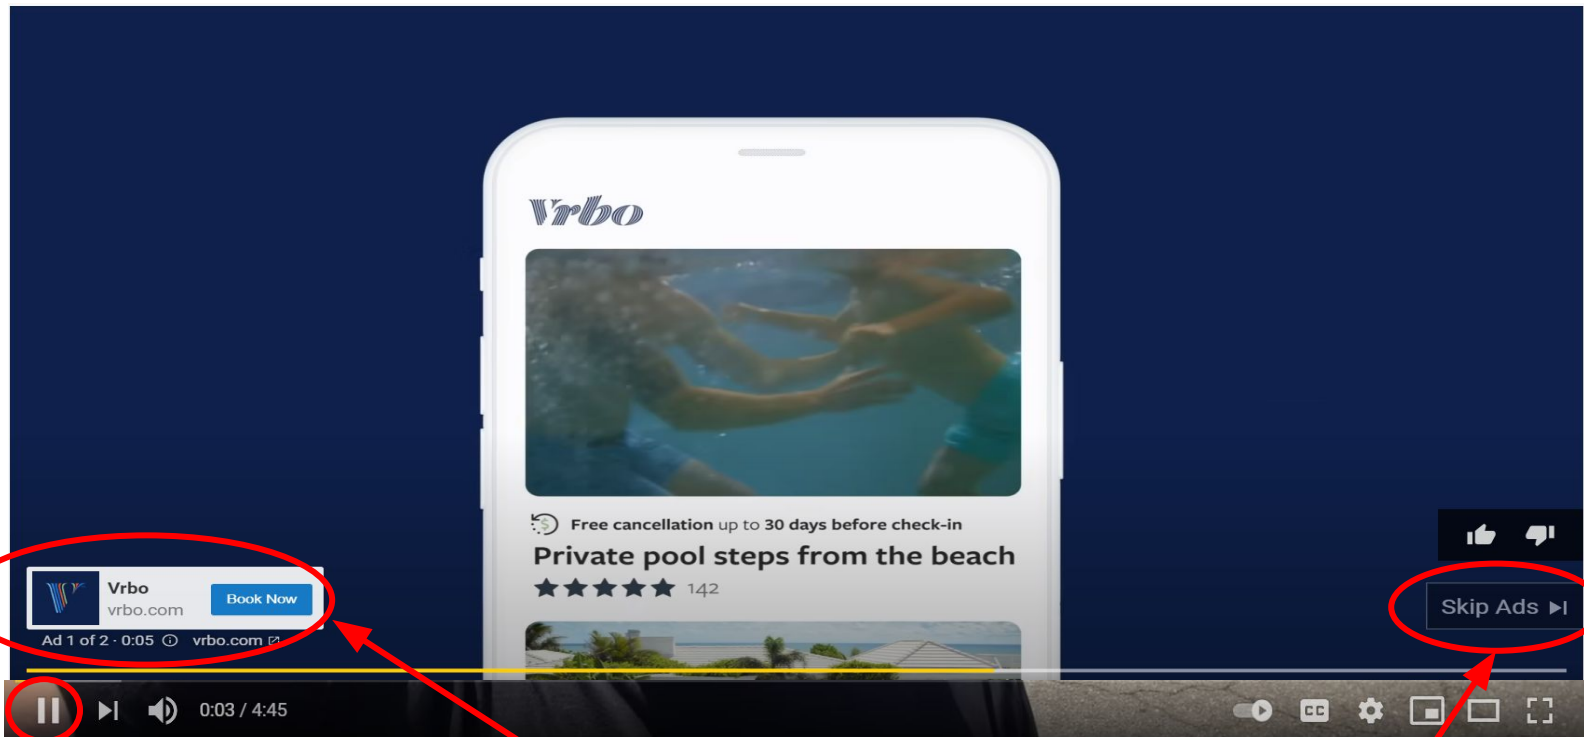

Click on any video of your choice to watch it

Use the scrollbar to move down this page and find more matching videos

- Remember that if you want to search for a different topic you can always use the search bar on the top and type in the new search topic.

- As you watch the video, sometimes an advertisement will play (either at the beginning of the video or in the middle). You can skip that advertisement by clicking on the 'Skip Ads' button on the video. You might have to wait for few seconds before the 'Skip Ads' button appears on the screen.
- While watching the video, if you want to pause it, click on the pause button. You can click the button again to resume the video.

Click here to pause / resume the video

This tells you what ad is currently playing

You can click this button to skip this ad

CONGRATULATIONS YOU HAVE MASTERED HOW TO FIND VIDEOS ON YOUTUBE!